Drive to Grand Canyon West Rim will take you over the Mike O'Callaghan-Pat Tillman Memorial Hoover Dam Bypass Bridge before entering Arizona. ' In the old days, the most thrilling view you could get of the Grand Canyon came standing at its edge. In 2007, that view got even better with the opening of the Skywalk at Eagle Point. This 10-foot-wide, horseshoe-shaped glass bridge extends 70 feet out over the rim of the Canyon. Look down and you can see right through the glass platform 4,000 feet to the floor of the Canyon below. Profiled by the National Geographic Channel, The Today Show, and CNN, this engineering marvel offers unparalleled views of the one of the world's Seven Natural Wonders. Proceed to the Skywalk... Nervous about walking on glass almost a mile above the Grand Canyon? Have no fear; the Skywalk is strong enough to bear the weight of seventy 747 passenger jets.'

After the tour proceed to Las Vegas Hault for Dinner at the Indian Restaurant. Overnight in Las Vegas.
